Care Authorization, Escapes and Acknowledgment

4 Medical care, expenses, and fleas

If a dog becomes ill or injured, Owner authorizes Pawz On Pine to seek veterinary care, including an available veterinarian if the preferred provider cannot be reached. Owner is responsible for veterinary expenses and related care costs, except to the extent applicable law makes Pawz On Pine responsible. Pawz On Pine will make reasonable attempts to contact Owner when practical.

If fleas are discovered, Owner authorizes Pawz On Pine to administer CapStar (nitenpyram) when appropriate for the dog, consistent with product labeling and veterinary guidance, at Owner's expense. Owner agrees to disclose health or medication concerns that may affect treatment.

5 Escapes, missing dogs, and inherent risks

Owner understands that dogs may unexpectedly pull away, slip a collar or harness, bolt when startled, or get through or over a barrier despite reasonable precautions. These possibilities may result in a dog becoming lost, injured, or otherwise harmed. Owner agrees to disclose any known flight risk or prior escape behavior and to provide secure, properly fitted equipment when requested.

If a dog escapes, Pawz On Pine will take reasonable steps appropriate to the circumstances to locate or recover the dog, including contacting Owner and relevant local resources when appropriate. Recovery cannot be guaranteed.

For clarity, the original attached release and hold harmless agreement is intended to apply to dog boarding and daycare activities, including risks associated with escape, disappearance, and related injury, to the extent the original release is enforceable under Kentucky law. This paragraph does not create a new blanket waiver of liability, excuse gross negligence or willful misconduct, or waive any nonwaivable legal duty.
